Amen.

*Morning Versicles

or

*Evening Versicles

In the morning, O Lord, You hear my voice;
in the morning I prepare a sacrifice for You and watch.
My mouth is filled with Your praise,
And with Your glory all the day.
O Lord, open my lips,
And my mouth will declare your praise.

The Lord Almighty grant us a quiet night and peace at the last.
Amen.
It is good to give thanks to the Lord,
to sing praises to Your name, O Most High;
to herald Your love in the morning,
Your truth at the close of the day.

The Second Article

Redemption

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

What does this mean?

I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from all eternity, and also true man, born of the virgin Mary, is my Lord, who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned person, purchased and won me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil; not with gold or silver, but with His holy, precious blood and with His innocent suffering and death, that I may be His own and live under Him in His kingdom and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, just as He is risen from the dead, lives and reigns to all eternity.

This is most certainly true.

How to use this tool

- For families, the head of the household speaks the portions in regular type with the rest of the family speaking the responses in bold. All join together for the Creed, Memory Verse, Catechism, Hymn, Lord's Prayer, and Morning/Evening Prayer. The Psalm may be prayed by all in unison, by the head of the household, or responsively.
- The family should aim to have the Catechism for the Month memorized by the end of the month (this may need to be adjusted for younger children).
- The family should also try to have at least the first stanza of the Hymn of the Month memorized.
- For a simpler order of Daily Prayer, the family/individual should use the parts preceded by a *.
- It is recommended that the family/individual follow either the Old or New Testament Readings, switching year to year.
